

Ospreys are large brown and white hawks that live near clean rivers and lakes. They eat only fish. Ospreys use their keen eyesight to hunt fish. Ospreys must have clear water to spot their prey. Fish are grabbed at the water's surface with the bird's talons and flown to the nearest feeding perch to be eaten.